GO BETWEEN BRINGS $7,000.

ALEX SHIELDS BIDS HIM UP IN THISTLE STAKES.

Broomstick Wins Mile Handleap With Top Beaten-Old Faithful in Front-Four Favorites Succeed at Sheepshead Bay.

Go Between, the four-year-old Meddler selding who has shown surprising form all , was victorious in the Thistle Selling Stakes, at nine furlongs, run over the Sheepshead Bay track yesterday. He was a favorite, hammered down to 8 to 5, and though he began slowly, finished with the usual in-vincible rush through the homestretch, passing the judges four lengths before T. Dowell's Geranium, 18 to 5, with Alex. Shields's back Go Between, who ran in the colors F. Fox, the man who bought him last rear from Schaffer & Meyer for $3,500, was intered to be sold for $2,800. When Judge McDowell called for bids Alex. Shields began by boosting the figures to $5,000 first crack out of the box. Trainer Brown old the usual $5, whereupon Shields kept on hidding $500 at a clip until he had named At that point Fox and Brown decided let the gelding go, and Shields, who told as $8,000, seemed well satisfied, although an expensive barzain, inasmuch as Go Between is reputed to be sore and the handicapper in future events will not be inclined The run-up netted 2.100 for T. C. McDowell, who ran second. Broomstick, with 126 pounds, found that he was the class in the handicap at a mile. He was the choice of the talent, though he ment back to 9 to 5 because of the play on E. E. Smathers's Jake Sanders and James R. Seene's Sinister, Martin rode him with consummate skill, waiting until the head of the stretch was reached, where Broomstick moved up on the outside and, overhauling Sinister, the pacemaker, won easily by a length and a half in 1:42. Sinister was the same distance before Cederstrome, 12 to 1, who beat Jake Sanders a head. Alan-a-Dale, odds on favorite in the sixth race, at a mile and a sixteenth on the turf, ter showing the way for three-quarters of a mile, tired under the weight. Jonquil, to 1, then became the pacemaker, but near the end he, too, got leg weary, and Migraine, second choice, under a drive, won by a naif length in 1:47. Jonquil was a length and half before Alan-a-Dale. Because he did not think Kinleydate could win after a poor start in the third race, for two-year-clds, five and a half furlongs, Willie Davis deliberately took the heavily backed Figet colt up, finishing last. H. P. Whit-pey's Old Faithful, 4 to 1, won this race by head from Phidias, the favorite, Hildebrand putting it all over Odom. Cassini. 20 to shot, was third. The time was 1:00 2-5. Consistent, 3 to 1, took the fifth race, for for two-year-old fillies, five furlougs, in a romp. Sae was two lengths in front of Speedway, 8 to 1 with Aviston, 3 to 1, a head back. The time was 1,03+5.

Jockeys that had never ridden a winner of the could be a winner. Jocasys that had never ridden a winner had the moding in the first race, at six and a halfurlongs, httprity course, and, wonderful to relate, the hydrife, Whorler, won by a length and a halfwith Green, a had well named, in the saddle, rabo, 8 to 1, was in the place, with Arsenal, for 1, a length back. The weather was theatening, the track heavy, four favorities we and about 12,000 persons were in attendance. The summaries:

Urigh and so did Morris Hayman. Cederstrome was backed by Charley Cash and Harry Connor.

So much money was bet on Sydney Paget's Kinleydale in the third race that he was the real favorite a moment before the barrier went up, as his price dropped to 2 to 5, while Phidias went up to twos. There was a clubhouse commission of $4,000 on this colt, while Dave Johnson, Manheimer, Sim Deimel, Joe Guthorn, Bill Porter, Bob Tucker and Paget all bet on him. The public played Phidias steadily, and seemed averse to supporting the Paget colt.

Among those who cashed liberal wagers on Go Between were Dave Johnson, Charley Fox, the Lichtensteins, Guthorn, Joe Beck, Eddie McDonald, John A. Drake, Charles Head Smith and Joe Cassidy. Leo Mayer, M. L. Hayman, Joe Rose and Alex Shields bet heavily on St. Valentine. Max Blumenthal, Fred Lowe, Charley Cash and Sig Levy supported Geranium. The clubhouse money went on Go Between at the last minute, and the closing price was 7 to 5.

Al Stokes and Sol Lichtenstein cashed on Consistent in the fifth race, with Eole Dearsall betting $1,000 on Aviston. E. E. Smathers dropped $2,500 on Alan-a-Dale in the last event. Dave Johnson, Eddie McDonald, Sol Lichtenstein and Joe Rose cashed on Migraine. Eddie Burke took Jonquil.

All told, the month of June at home was a hard one for the New Yorks, eight games being postponed on account of rain and there being more defeats than victories in the games that were played. The Westerners captured a majority of their games in the East, having a margin of three victories to their credit. All of them except St. Louis won more games than they lost. The good work of the Philadelphias against the invaders was all that kept the latter from making a better showing. The Philadelphias gave the Clevelands another setback yesterday, taking three out of four games. NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Brooklyns Wind Up in the West by Losing a Game in Pittsburg.

The first invasion of the West by the Eastern teams of the National League came to an end yesterday, when the Brooklyns played in Pittsburg and swelled the Pirates' list of victories. The Chicago-St. Louis game was postponed on account of rain. The New Yorks held their own in games won and lost in the West saltburgh they lost considerably in the West, although they lost considerably in points: the Brooklyns made a sorry show ing, the Bostons did slightly better than was expected, and the Philadelphias acquitted themselves creditably.

WOMEN'S TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP. New York Girl Will Take the Title-Play

Cool weather made tennis more pleasant and the rain had improved the courts, which played fast and true. This year the title will go to New York, as both Miss Homans and Miss Moore, the two players now left in the event, belong to New York clubs. In the absence of the holder of the title of last year, Miss Sutton, the winner of the single event will also take the championship for the year by default. Both players are in their best form and will strain every nerve to achieve the covered title.

Wright Will Default to Ward for London Championship. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

LONDON, June 23.—In the lawn tennis tournament for the London championship at the Queen's Club grounds to-day Beals C Wright beat Brookes, 3-6, 4-6, 6-4, 6-4, 6-1. Brookes started in fine style but weakened, and the game had a very tame Holcombe Ward beat Gore, 6-1, 6-8, 6-4, 2-6, 6-4. Gore played a magnificent game, giving Ward more trouble than any opponent has yet. The game was doubtful to the end.

To-day's results left Ward and Wright To-day's results left Ward and Wright to play the final match to-morrow. It was announced that Wright would default, making Ward the winner.

In the doubles Larned and Clothier beat Flavelle and Ritchie, 5-7, 7-5, 6-3, 6-4.

In the doubles Ward and Wright beat Brookes and Dunlop, 6-1, 9-7, 6-3, although Ward was tired after his game with Gore and Wright's feet were blistered. Two American teams are left for the final, but it is expected that one will be scratched.

The Americans will go to Wimbledon to-night to take up their quarters. Trouble arose over the nominations for the Davis cup. The Australians supported the American contention that the nominations should antedate the playing by twenty-one days. The English as aciation wanted to wait until that event begin, but it eventually agreed to the American proposal.

It is now thought that Gore and Ritchie would be better representatives of the British than the Doherty brothers since the Australians have beaten the latter in practice twice. There is little doubt that Ward and Wright will represent the Americans. Larned has not been in the best of health. In deference to the wishes of the Americans it has been agreed that the final for the Davis cup shall be played at the Queen's Club instead of Wimbledon. The critics expect that the Americans will have an easy win. to play the final match to-morrow. It was

At 10:30 o'clock last night, Guy Vaughan had completed 426 miles at the Empire City Track in his attempt to lower the 1,000 mile automobile track record of 25 hours, 50 minutes 1 second, held by Charles G. Wridgway, at which time he was 1 hour, 11 minutes ahead of Mr. Wridgway's time for the same distance. Vaughan began his long journey at 1:25 o'clock yesterday afternoon, driving the litthat he has won so many races with. L. A. Mitchell rode with the record seeker as mechanic. The rains of the last lew days had Mitchell rode with the record seeker as mechanic. The rains of the last lew days had made the track soft near the pole, but the surface was so thoroughly soaked that scarcely any dust was raised and there was just enough moisture in the track to keep the tires cool.

At 9:35 o'clock last night, when Vaughan completed his first eight hours of riding, he had covered 383 miles and was 54 minutes ahead of Mr. Wridgway's record for that distance. The latter made his record at Brighton Beach a few weeks ago with a 24 horse-power Peerless, keeping his engine running for the entire distance, and he acted as one of the officials for Vaughan's trial.

Vaughan made no attempt to capture non-stop honors, but is trying to capture the thousand dollar challenge cup offered by the Empire track. He did not stop until 150 miles had been covered, when the oil and gasoline supply was replemished, which was again necessary at 302 miles; 9 minutes, 30 seconds were lost the first time and 15 seconds more the other as both men ate some breakfast. At 322 miles, 44 seconds were lost fixing the headlights and at 9:10 o'clock the innertube of the right front eire blew out, losing 9 minutes, 2 seconds. If Vaughan completes the 1:000 miles before 1:35 this afternoon he will keep on to make a new 24 hour record also.
